THE NEW PM S.p.A. WEBSITE IS ONLINE

PM S.p.A. RENEWS ITS PRESENCE ON THE WEB THANKS TO THE LAUNCH OF ITS NEW WEBSITE.

Completely renewed graphics, contents and informative potential, the new PM S.p.A. website is now online, distinguished by a modern and impacting layout, in which the yellow and black colours of the historical corporate logo predominate.

Linear and intuitive, the new website consists of a home page and of a main process page designed to provide more effective and immediate content communication regarding the services provided by the company thanks to intuitive navigation by means of "icons" presenting and describing the main production process phases.

The commodity "sectors" always occupy the central section of the process page and, by means of the menu arranged alongside, the sector of interest can be selected and the specific gallery dedicated to the manufactured products can be displayed.

Details of the Company are located in the top navigation bar and are accessible from all the website pages.

The website, created with the very latest programming languages, such as xhtml and css, complies with W3C accessibility standards and can be used from all navigation platforms, such as tablets and smartphones.

The aim of the new website is to publicize the company's services and its dynamic and innovative essence.
